Good Thing for Packers.

Good Thing for Packers.

The people have not yet realized that the inspection law was such a boon to the packers. It has given them a market for the products such as they never enjoyed before. And it has also given them an excuse to increase the price of meats, for while they would not allow the cost of inspection to be placed upon them and saddled it upon the government, they are alleging that the cost of making their establishments conform to the sunitary regulations promulgated under the new law will cause them to raise the price of meats.

Neatness

Is the great cry of the age. Except in the case of large. high-priced bedroom suites, everything that's useful in furniture is neat and very plain. We have an enormous stock of neat Brass and Iron Beds, neat Dressers, Chiffonieres and Toilet Tables, in mahogany, oak and birdseye maple to match, which, when you consider the extraordinary fine finish and fine woods used in their construction, are wonderfully low in price. Don't make the girl spend the first few years of married life in the drudgery of keeping a big, clumsy chamber suite clean, but get a bridal suite, consisting of a neat brass bed with a neat bureau or chiffoniere and ladies' dresser to match, and you'll always have a sweet-tempered wife. And say! It will more than likely cost

GULMINATION OF PRETTY ROMANCE

After a Year's Courtship, Miss Lucy Tatum Weds Mr. Carl Boschen.

HAVANA, September 25.—The insurgents are inclined to week the benefit of the armistice during the continuance of the peace negotiations. Hereofore there was merely a verbal agreement without any definite terms, but a document was prepared and taken vesterday to the camps of Generals Guerra and Castillo, and these chiefs attached their signatures to it. The document was signed to-day by Acting Secretary of the Interior Montaivo on behalf of the government.

Text of the Armistice.

The following is the text of Secretary Taff's army armistice, as agreed upon absolutely by the insurgents, and on one condition by the government officials:

"A truce of suspension of arms having been decreed by the President of Cuba and proclaimed to the forces of the Liberal party by their leaders, I, as intermediary for the purpose of arranging a permanent peace have the honor to request the opposing time their honeymoon to other points in the North.

Mr. Boschen met his bride just about a year ago. They were both playing in "Professor Napoleon." he in the star role, and she as one of the leading ladles. It seems to have been a case of love at first sight, and thereafter Mr. Hoschen made it his business to see Miss Tatum as often as possible. He pressed his suit with ever undiminished airdor, and last night saw the culmination of the happy little romance.

Mr. Boschen is the manager of the Boschen Shoe Company. He is a very popular young man among a host of friends, and is widely liked. He is a member of the Bichmond Blues, many of whom were at the train to wish him luck and to bid him God-speed on his voyage. Miss Tatum, is the daughter of Mrs. Tatum, matron of the Sheltering Arms Hospital. She is very accomplished and exceedingly pretty and is very popular.
